PRIVACY STATEMENT

Information about you: how we use it and with whom we share it

We will use your personal data to allow us to process your registration, communicate with you, facilitate event activities and obtain your feedback about the event. We are processing the information about you for these purposes because by registering for the conference, you are entering into a contractual agreement for us to do so.

In order to facilitate the registration for this event, we use Eventbrite - a third party service which is not operated by the University of Edinburgh. Details of Eventbrite's privacy policy can be found at: https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/help/en-gb/articles/460838/eventbrite-privacy-policy/

If you wish to attend an event organised by Eventbrite, but do not wish to use this service, please email us at: CMVMResearchStaff@ed.ac.uk

If you have given us your permission, we will share your name, affiliation, contact information and details for the event activities with the other participants in the delegate list. We will not share information about you with any other third party.

After the event, we will send you a survey as it is our legitimate interest to help us improve any future events we organise.

We will hold the personal data you provided us for 1 year after the event.

We do not use profiling or automated decision-making processes.

If you have any questions, please contact:
Joe.Rainger@ed.ac.uk
